גמ Avraham Avinu rediscovered belief in One G-d. One of the p'sukim that tells us about Avraham's belief is B'reishit 15:6 -

וְהֵאמֵן בְּה' וַיַּחְשְׁבֶהָ לּוֹ צְדָקָה:

[Avram] believed in God, and He counted it as righteousness.

The belief in One G-d is the major foundation stone of Judaism. It is formalized in the first two statements of the Aseret HaDibrot, the two that we heard directly from G-d - MIPI HAG'VURA. The second of the statements, Sh'mot 20:3 (in Yitro) is a GM of the pasuk above, at 696 (that's a low gimatriya for a whole pasuk).

לֹא יִהְיֶה לְךָ אֱלֹהִים אֲחֵרִים עִלַּי פְּנִי:

Do not have any other gods before Me.

Belief in One G-d started with the first of our Avot. Formalized to the People of Israel at Sinai, and continues through the generations - forever.
